The Premier of The Sound of Music

An instant hit! The Sound of Music had its premier and quickly became the top-grossing film of 1965 and remains one of film's most popular musicals. Based on the memoir 'The Story of the Trapp Family Singers' by Maria von Trapp, the film is about a young Austrian woman studying to become a nun in Salzburg in 1938 who is sent to the villa of a retired naval officer and widower to be governess to his seven children. After bringing love and music into the lives of the family through kindness and patience, she marries the officer and together with the children find a way to survive the loss of their homeland through courage and faith. The film was released on March 29th, 1965 in this Country and was an adaptation of a 1959 Broadway musical by composers Rodgers and Hammerstein. The Sound of Music received five Academy Awards, including Best Picture and Best Director. The film also received two Golden Globe Awards, for Best Motion Picture and Best Actress for Julie Andrews.
