

Goldfield Gazette

Issue No.5

Beatles Edition

The Beatles' visit the United States at a time of great popularity in Britain. They follow their UK commercial breakthrough with a year of concerts and tours in America. The Beatles' popularity in the United States, is marked by intense demand for the single "I Want to Hold Your Hand"—which sold one-and-a-half million copies in under three weeks. The visit, advertised across the United States on five million posters, is a defining moment in the Beatles' history, and the starting-point of the British Invasion. Help! is released this month and is the fifth studio album from the Beatles, and the soundtrack from their film Help! Produced by George Martin, it contains fourteen songs. Seven of these, including the singles "Help!" and "Ticket to Ride", appear in the film and take up the first side of the vinyl

Fashion Trends

What's On the Television?

Blue Peter

Music from 1965

Help!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yWP6Qki8mWc>

Inventions from the 1960's

Plastic Swimming Goggles

Advertisements

BLP Homework Activity Idea

Many of the Beatles Album covers are full of colour and patterns. Have a go at designing your own album cover on the sheet attached. Why not watch the Yellow Submarine video for inspiration ?

