Goldfield Infants and Nursery School has created this privacy statement in order to demonstrate our firm commitment to privacy. The following discloses our information gathering and dissemination practices for this website:
<http://www.goldfield.herts.sch.uk/>.

We evaluate the relevant sites which we provide links to but Goldfield Infants and Nursery School does not give approval or endorsement of those websites and we are not responsible for their content. As such, links to other websites are not covered by this policy and individuals are advised to check the privacy policies of those other sites for their terms and conditions.

Cookies

The <http://www.goldfield.herts.sch.uk> website does not use cookies, which are small text files that are placed on your computer by websites you visit. They are widely used in order to make websites work, or work more efficiently, as well as to provide information to the owners of the site. They cannot be used to get information from your computer about you or read any personal material kept by you on your computer.

The cookie is used to make the link between you and the information you have provided to the website. The creation of a cookie on your computer does not give the website any access to other information such as your email address. Directgov has produced a simple video which explains what cookies are and how they might be used. To view the video please visit:

The Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) Regulations 2003 (the Regulations) cover the use of cookies and similar technologies for storing information, and accessing information stored, on a user's equipment such as their computer or mobile. Amendments to the regulations came into effect on 25 May 2011. The Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) (Amendment) Regulations 2011 make it compulsory for websites to inform users if cookies are being used, and to provide some information on how cookies are used.

Where the Goldfield website links to external/third party websites which may set cookies, we have no control over these.

Information we collect

Goldfield Infants and Nursery School does not collect or store any personal information about individuals who browse this website other than where you voluntarily choose to give your personal information via email or online forms used to enquire about or apply for a service. The information provided by users via email or online forms will be acted upon according to the content of the communication.

Any personal data collected through this website will be treated as confidential under the principles of the Data Protection Act 1998.

Information to improve our website

Our web servers automatically log the user's IP address and session information such as the duration of the visit, type of browser being used and broad demographic information. The information we do collect is only used for system administration and to provide statistics which are used for evaluation of the site.

Security

The site has security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse and alteration of the information under our control. All instances of unauthorised attempted access to our site are logged and investigated. Where necessary, Herts for Learning will inform law enforcement agencies or other relevant organisations regarding misconduct.

Email

At Goldfield Infants & Nursery School we respect the privacy of email accounts and we store your email addresses securely. Your details will not be passed to any organisation beyond Hertfordshire County Council without your explicit permission.

Notification of changes

Development of new Hertfordshire County Council services may generate the need to amend this Privacy Policy at any time.
